The enclosed LHM has been prepared in view of the many revelations that have been made in mass media, and concerning the overall operations of CIA and the FBI in the recent past. Should the Bureau desire to disseminate this LHM, consideration should be given to classifying same.

With respect to GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT, referred to in the enclosed LHM, the Dallas file on DE MOHRENSCHILDT is 105-531, and Dallas file 105-1766 concerns his wife, JEANNE DE MOHRENSCHILDT. Buffile 105-32965 concerns these two individuals. Considerable information is also reflected in the assessination investigation concerning the DE MOHRENSCHILDTs.

It is the recommendation of the Dallas Office that no inquiries outside the Bureau be made concerning this book, as to do so would only enhance the popularity of the book.

In the event the Bureau does desire inquiries be made at this time or at some later time, it is felt considerable inquiry should be made through CIA

In the event an interview of HUGH C. MC DONALD is contemplated, now or in the future, it is felt a thorough interview of GEORGE DE MOHRENSCHILDT would be in order prior to such interview with MC DONALD. Dallas would strongly recommend against any interview of MC DONALD or anyone else with respect to MC DONALD's book, as it appears to be another book written based on a ridiculous theory, without any substantial foundation, solely for the purpose of financial gain.
